Summary of agreement

The Continuing Parties and the Outgoing Party are parties to the Principal Document.

The New Party will replace the Outgoing Party under the Principal Document.

Part A Confirming new obligations

A1 Novation

From the Stated Time, the parties novate the Principal Document so that:

- (a) the New Party replaces the Outgoing Party
- (b) the New Party has all the rights and obligations of the Outgoing Party that arise after the Stated Time
- (c) the New Party and the Continuing Parties are bound by and must comply with the Principal Document as if the New Party were a party to the Principal Document instead of the Outgoing Party.

A2 Future obligations

From the Stated Time, the Continuing Parties and the Outgoing Party:

- (a) have no further rights against each other under the Principal Document other than those that arose before the Stated Time
- (b) release each other from all obligations and liabilities under the Principal Document other than those that arose before the Stated Time.

A3 Existing obligations

The Continuing Parties and the Outgoing Party continue to be responsible for all obligations and liabilities under the Principal Document that arose before the Stated Time.

Part C Understanding this document

C1 How the Deed operates

- (a) This document contains the entire agreement between the parties about the Developer Works. It completely replaces any previous understanding, agreement or warranty.
- (b) Where possible, any provision that is unenforceable, or partly unenforceable, must be severed as much as is needed to make the Deed enforceable, unless this would materially change the intended effect of this document.
- (c) Each party, its staff and agents must do anything (including execute any document) that the other party might reasonably require to give full effect to this Deed.
- (d) This document may be executed in counterparts.

C2 Definitions

In this document, please note that a word:

- derived from a defined word has the corresponding meaning
